THE MISSIONAL IMAGINATION

A cohort exploring the practice of mission.

Are you interested in exploring the practice of mission for today's church? Are you interested in putting your imagination to work in a concrete project in service to the gospel and your neighbours?

If so, this program is designed for you. It takes place over three weekends, and includes video-conference follow-up at the end. All sessions will be led by faculty members of The Presbyterian College and local guest practitioners.
